Absent, Excused — Glaze; Homer; Sadler.

Absent — Danburg; Pickett; Reyna, A.

The invocation was offered by Reverend Dickie Halbgewachs, pastor, Oak Hill Primitive Baptist Church, Austin, as follows:

Oh Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth, who hast set thy glory above the heavens. We bow today in thy presence, the only wise God, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto, who no man hath seen nor can see, to whom be honor and power everlasting.

Father, bless the men and women of this chamber that lead and govern the State of Texas. Protect their loved ones, and guard their interests and positions at home while they give of themselves in public service.

May the laws passed here reflect your divine law for our good. As concessions are made to enact such legislation, may concession not be made of your divine truth. You rule in the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth, and ultimately all that is done here will only last as it is in accordance to thy will.

I confess today, troubled on reflection that thou dost visit the iniquity of the parents upon children and children's children to the third and fourth generation. Forgive us for self will. Bless us all to fear thee instead of men.

We thank thee that thou dost receive us through thy son as we confess our sin and make amends. Bless us to live out our lives to bring thee glory both in the public and private sector. Bless the great State of Texas.

In Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.
